Concerning the Sergeant-at-Arms,

Mr. Payne of New York, for the select committee appointed last December to investigate the accounts of the Sergeant-at-Arms' office, has reported a bill defining the duties of that officer. It makes him a disbursing officer. A long report accompanies the bill.

AGAINST THE PINKERTONS.

BEARING GIVEN BY THE HOUSE COM-

MITTEE ON COMMERCE. Congressman John Quinn of New York, accompanied by a committee appointed by various labor organizations, and composed of Thomas N. Levi, president of the Bricklayers' Union; H. J. Schulteis, chairman of the legis-lative committee of the Knights of Labor, and Robert McMackin, appeared to day before the House Commit Commerce to urge the passage of a bill to prevent railroad corporations giving Pinkerton men the police power which at present they usurp.

A few days ago Mr. Quinn offered a resolution in the House calling upon the Committee of Commerce to present an amendment to the interstate co merce law to prevent railroads operating under that law from employing armed bodies of men like the Pinkerton de-

Congressman Quinn delivered an address before the committee, in which he related how Pinkerton detectives, at present employed by the New York Central Railroad Compan, had shot down inoffensive citizen of the city of Albany. Mr. Quine claimed there was no adequate excuse for the employment of these armed odies, as the police powers of the different States were abundantly able to maintain law and order and afford proper protection to property. He also claimed it was a violation of law to arm these men, who usually were reck-less and belonged to the worse elements

f society, Mr. Schultels also addressed the committee. He said the labor organiza-tions were unanimously in favor of the

Quinn resolution. A sub-committee of five of the Committee on Commerce was appointed to draw up an amendment covering the requirements of the case and report the same to the House.

William A. Valentine, master work man of Assembly 10569, K. of L. and one of the discharged men, said he had been accused of being a Knight and was discharged for that reason. Other discharged employes, Dennis McCarty, J. C. Lee and others, testified to the same effect.

A WASHINGTON LADY'S JEWELS

Stolen at Newport and a Reward is Offered for Their Recovery. A Washington lady, who has been spending the summer at Newport, has returned to her home and in very desfreus of recovering the jewels that were stolen from her cottage there on the 5th day of August while she was away from home. A gold hunting case watch, several pleees of diamond jewelry, including scarf pin, screw earrings, a six stone ring and a brace-let, an heirloom in the family, were taken. She at first had an interview with the Chief of Police of Newport, Mr. W. H. Osgood, and it was thought advisable to suppress the theft in hopes of having the jewelry recovered. The loss at the time was called to the attention of the police department here and after a careful investigation they were satisfied that no one here could in any way be connected with the theft. To-day Chief Osgood comes out with a re-ward of $1,000 for the recovery of the

Who Spiash Water on Ladies' Dresses and Shirts.

Editor Critic: The ladies who pass back and forth in front of the National Hotel are auxious to know why the colord man who blacks shoes in front and manipulates the hose about 5 or 6 o'clock in the evening should have so much latitude. He does not pretend to pay any attention to passers-by, but floods the sidewalk just the same. On one occasion my light shoes were al-most completely soaked and my skirts dampened by the flow of water from the nozzle.

I called the man's attention to the fact, but he passed it off in a careless way. Shortly afterward I had occasion to watch another lady who was po and unfortunately she met with the same experience that I had gone through. I think the use of the water on the sidewalk and pavement on warm days might be followed up by other business firms on the Avenue, but the hose ought to be placed in the hands of men who can exercise a little discretion. Dr. Sumby reported the matter to the pelice, and an investigation has been going on since to discover the where abouts of the girl. The father believes she is either in New York or Baltimore, while the police locking to the belief hat she is hiding either in this city or Alexandria.

Shortly after her disappearance an nonymous letter was written to the ommissioners declaring that Officer ingene Smith of the Fourth precinct was concerned in her disappearance and knew her present whereabouts. This was promptly investigated, and resulted in the complete vindication of the officer. To-day Dr. Sumby sent a letter to Colonel Robert saying he was satisfied that Mr. Smith knew nothing about the matter,
